There is only a diminishing cloud of blue smoke, scattered piles of red and gray ashes and the poor lone, eyeless, tailless and hairless mule left to mark the place where the powder mills stood. It is a sorry picture, one that casts a gloom on the heart and makes one feel that verily here is the Valley of Death.

Fontanet has had powder explosion before. Only a year ago a young man named Frank Hamilton, a mechanic was blown to atoms while making some repairs on the plant destroyed yesterday. Hamilton was the only person near a magazine containing 300 kegs of dynamite when it

Supreme Court Decides County Officers May Draw Fees for Collecting Back Taxes.

The Supreme court Tuesday affirmed the Common Pleas and Circuit courts of Franklin county in the case of Ohio ex rel Will vs. E. L. Taylor, Jr., prosecuting attorney, A. T. Seymour and Kari T. Webber, his assistants, involving the payment of fees for the collection of taxes from sundry insurance companies. The defendants collected $12,020.93 for their services, and John A. Will, a taxpayer, through M. E. Thraillkill, sought to enjoin L. Ewing Jones, auditor, and Willis G. Bowland, treasurer, from issuing a warrant and paying the amount. The lower courts decided that these officials were entitled to the fees, and this opinion was affirmed by the Circuit court. The Supreme court affirmed the Circuit. The officials keep the money.

In Circuit Court.

In the circuit court the case of Max McCann, plaintiff in error, vs. the State of Ohio defendant in error, was argued and submitted. The plaintiff in error in the common pleas court was indicted for rape. He was tried and found guilty of assault with intent to commit rape, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for seven years. By his attorneys, Jones and Jones, and Smythe and Smythe, he is asking the circuit court to grant him a new trial on the ground that the indictment is defective, that the evidence did not support the verdict, and for errors of law in the trial in the common pleas court. The court will probably pass upon the case on Friday of this week.

The case of Newark and Granville Street Ry. Co., plaintiff in error, vs. F. M. Black defendant in error, is next in order for hearing. This is also an error proceeding, brought in the circuit court by the railway company to reverse the verdict and judgment in the common pleas court in favor of Black, for attorney fees rendered the railway company during the time it was under the management of Messrs. Reymann and Wright. Miller, Wright; Black, Kibler & Montgomery.

PREMIER TO LEAD ANOTHER FIGHT

Columbus, Oct. 16.—J. R. Freiner, representative from Vinton county, who won his fight to have his name at the head of the 2-cent passenger fare law, is so pleased with the operation of his first pet, that he is planning to extract a few more teeth from the corporations and other public service corporations.

Mr. Freiner is ready to lead the fight for largely extended powers for the state railroad commission. He does not believe that the public service corporations are making complete returns under the different excise tax laws, and would have them regularly examined by the state, to make certain that taxes are collected on all business which can be credited to Ohio.

BRAKEMAN TAYLOR MAKES STATEMENT ABOUT TREATMENT

Mr. C. F. Taylor, 26 North Morris street, the well known B. & O. brakeman, who was injured at Mt. Vernon last July, takes exception to "Observer's" card relative to the "Boy Phenomenon's" treatment. Mr. Taylor has been suffering since the accident, and is obliged to walk with either a cane or crutches owing to the injury to his ankles. Seeing the offer of free treatment and having been unable to obtain relief, Mr. Taylor said he thought he would take a chance, as the treatment could do no harm, even if it failed to cure. In talking to the Advocate today Mr. Taylor said that no fee was asked of him, and he showed a card entitling him to further free treatment, but he unhesitatingly declared that he had received no benefit from the treatment. Mr. Taylor is a well known and reputable resident of the city. He went to the Boy Phenomenon absolutely of his own volition, and he gives a good reason for doing so. He thought he might obtain relief and was willing under the circumstances to try it.

CARD FROM MR. TAYLOR.

The Saturday evening paper printed an article from "Observer" to which I wish to reply. I was not a picked patient, neither did I receive a fee for going on the stage, or try to deceive people of Newark by using my crutches, as it is necessary for me to use them when out after night. I can't say I received any benefit thus far, but I am willing to give the "Boy Phenomenon" a fair trial. I speak for myself alone and let others do the same.

BULLDOG

Put Up a Plucky Fight With Lion Which Was Stopped by Keepers With Irons.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 16.—A battle royal between a lion and a prize bulldog took place behind the scenes of a local theater Tuesday afternoon. The bulldog was a $2,500 prize canine, Mico, winner of four championships at English kennel shows and holder of the Mitchell gold cup. He had wandered behind the scenes with his owner, and if he was looking for trouble he found it.

Toby, a big Rhodesian lion, was moving restlessly back and forth in his cage as it was being wheeled on the stage preparatory to his act before the audience. Mico resented something in the lion's looks and with a low growl sprang at the cage, climbed the forewheel and then wriggled his $2,500 worth of self between the steel bars. Without further ado he sprang for the throat of the former denizen of the African jungle.

The lion at first was too surprised to resent the attack, but when the sharp teeth of his adversary worked through his skin he gave a roar and began to fight for all he was worth. With a mighty shake of his head he threw the dog to the other end of the cage, and then, quick as a flash sprang upon him. The bulldog met the rush with one of his own and again fastened himself to the lion's neck. A blow from the lion's paw again sent the dog sprawling across the cage. A third time the dog sprang at his opponent's throat. This time the lion encircled the dog's body with the claws of his fore foot and was drawing it toward him when the cage door opened and the trainer with a steel bar compelled the lion to drop the dog. The lion then clawed the trainer, ripping his coat from his back and bruising his shoulder before he was subdued. The dog was little the worse for the encounter.

Elmer McCann of Sidney, Ohio, brother of Mrs. L. W. Perry, in the presence only of the immediate families of the contracting parties. The rooms presented a most beautiful appearance, being profusely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. After congratulations had been showered upon the happy couple, a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents at which only the members of the two families and the Rev. Mr. Miller were present. Mr. and Mrs. Perry left on a late train Tuesday night for an extended wedding trip through the east. The bride is one of the most popular and charming young ladies of Granville, and for some time has occupied a position as teacher in our public schools. The groom is a son of Mr. L. W. One of the things stated was that Licking county must bring home a banner from the Toledo convention next June. Mr. W. A. Holmes gave an address at the evening session which was inspiring and encouraging to all Sunday school workers. Sunday afternoon, October 13, the county secretary, accompanied by Mr. Ned Brown of Granville, went to Pataskala where a convention of unusual interest was held. BLOOD HOUNDS TRACK VANDAL

Coshocton, Ohio, Oct. 16.—The residents of the vicinity of Warsaw are all agog over the depredations of a miscreant who was at work in that neighborhood Monday afternoon.

The person, whose identity is as yet a mystery, made a silent visit to the homes of Cyrus Elder and Wm. McCurdy, one mile south of Warsaw, and deliberately ruined cream separators at each place. The motive for the despicable act is unexplained other than at each place a profane note was left containing the words, "You had better brought a De Lavall," meaning another brand of separator.

Bloodhounds were brought over from Newcomerstown and an effort made to track the miscreant, but it proved futile. There are suspicions, however, and an arrest is expected within the next 24 hours.

Indicted at St. Vernon.

Sheriff S. L. Redman received a telephone message from Sheriff Clements of Knox county advising him that Wheeler O. Wright, who is under indictment here for failure to support his minor children, has been indicted by the Knox county grand jury for the crime of adultery, and that he is wanted there. Sheriff Redman arrested his man at the Pan Handle depot just as he was about to leave on an east bound train.

Sheriff Clements came here and took charge of the man.

A Small Blaze.

The burning of some stubble grass along the B. & O. tracks opposite the shops, called out the East Newark hose company and the hook and ladder company from the Central station at 2:15 this afternoon. The grass caught fire from a passing locomotive.

WEDDINGS.

SCOTT-WHILEY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening at Lancaster, O., when Mr. Hervey H. Scott and Miss Harriet Wilson Whiley were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride by Rev. Augustine J. Smith, in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few friends. The rooms were prettily arranged with autumn leaves and flowers, and after the ceremony an elaborate course dinner was served. The arrangements of the dining room were complete, and the decorations very artistic.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for a trip to the lakes, where they will remain about a week and on their return will make their home at the Sherwood hotel for a time, and later will reside on Hudson avenue.

Mrs. Scott is a young lady very popular in the society circles of Lancaster, and her congenial manner won for her a large number of friends that she leaves with regret,
but it will win for her a large circle in this city. Mr. Scott is the popular sporting editor of the American-Tribune, and although he has been in the city but a short time, he has many friends who extend best wishes to himself and bride.

HANOVER-ULRY.

At Columbus on Tuesday a marriage license was issued to L. Bertram Hanover, 24, farmer, Black Lick, and Ona Kate Ulry, 24, New Albany. Rev. Mr. Knapp officiated at the wedding.

McFADDEN-SOLINGER.

A wedding charming in its simplicity was that of Mr. F. McFadden and Miss Mary Solinger, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Solinger, near Highwater. The couple were attended by Mr. Elmer Solinger and Miss Grace Griffith. The wedding march was rendered by a sister of the bride, Miss Louise Solinger.
About 40 guests were present at the ceremony.

Mrs. McFadden is an accomplished young woman and is a successful music teacher, while Mr. McFadden is an employee of the Homer gas station.

DUNSON-MOORE.

On Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Moore, when their daughter, Miss Bertha,
was united in marriage to Mr. Horace G. Dunson, Rev. T. A. Cosgrove officiating at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunson left for a trip and will be at home to their friends after December 1, at 44 East Locust street.

COLUMBUS MEN "STUNG."

Columbus, Oct. 16—Investors in the Cargill company race horse "get rich quick" concern, were notified today that the company had met with heavy losses and the entire capital had been wiped out. Columbus investors lose over $200,000.

PRINCE AT LUNCH COUNTER.

Wilhelm of Sweden Had Sandwiches
and Coffee Quite Democratically.

Sitting on a high stool fronting the counter of the depot restaurant, Prince Wilhelm of Sweden ate sandwiches and drank coffee the other evening just the same as hundreds of ordinary individuals do every day, says a Pittsfield (Mass.) special dispatch to the New York Times.

The prince was on his way from Albany to Boston, and his train was held up for two hours at Chatham, N. Y., by a small freight wreck.

By the time the train reached Pittsfield his highness was unmistakably hungry, and the conductor was asked to hold the train long enough for the royal appetite to be appeased. Prince Wilhelm and the members of his party lined up before the counter, and the pretty waitresses were overcome with awe when they learned the identity of their patron.

Coffee, sandwiches and railroad doughnuts were ordered and eaten with relish. Several hundred people assembled at the station and had a good view of the prince as he stowed away the edibles.

By giving a two dollar tip for the lunch Prince Wilhelm established a new schedule of gratuities in the Berkshires. Anna Watkins was the pretty waitress who received the $2.

PHOTOGRAPH THEIR CLAIMS.

Homesteaders Use Cameras to Make Sure of Their Rights.

Determined that no dispute shall arise between themselves and the special agents of the government when the time comes for them to prove up, a number of homesteaders in the St.
Louis valley country have adopted the novel experiment of photographing their claims, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press. To show what they tell of their homesteads is true the photographs will be on hand when the hearing on the final proof is held.

The photographs are taken from different views and will give a clear idea of the amount of land which has been cleared and placed under cultivation, and if there is any dispute the homesteaders will be able to present strong evidence to support their contentions.
The photographs being made now will show the growing crops, and other photographs will be taken from time to time to show other improvements which are being made upon the claims.

Gust Eldlund and Frank E. Anderson, two homesteaders, have set the example in having these photographs taken,
and now every claim holder in the St.
Louis valley country has provided himself or herself with a camera and is engaged in taking snapshots showing the buildings and other improvements
upon their claims.

Strike's Pleasant Features.

The telegraph operators' strike is being conducted in a manner entirely new and original, says the New York Tribune. Music and dancing are not usually the means adopted of keeping up enthusiasm and loyalty to the cause, yet the telegraphers have found that the plan works admirably. At the strikers' headquarters members of the Telegraphers' union with musical talent gather daily and provide music free of charge for dancing. The young women are a self appointed committee of the whole on enthusiasm, and they devote their spare time to dancing with the young men so as to keep them in line. Their influence has had much to do with the peaceful manner in which the strike has so far been conducted.

The Moroccan Danger.

It is in September, at this time of the autumnal equinox, that the Mediterranean becomes particularly bad.
We have had opportunities of noting the difficulties of disembarkation of our sailors and soldiers, although it has taken place in full summer, on a sea relatively calm. Perhaps the Moroccans are awaiting the moment of the unchaining of the winds to pounce upon our little army corps, cut off from external help, says M. Henri Rochefort in the Paris Intransigeant.
All the valor of the French and the tactics of General Druide would be broken to pieces against the Moroccan hordes, whose anti-French fury would no longer know bounds.

In the Nature Fakir's Den.

"This is a crocodile's jaw," he observed.
"If you notice it closely beneath
you will see that one day by privations unnumbered."
It provided itself with false teeth.
And here is an elephant's trunk that I got
When the elephant had gone away.
The intelligent brute must have tinkered
a lot.

To arrange it with lid and with tray.
"And here are some chickens I got in the west."
Please notice the fur on their legs.
And also the wool on the back and the breast.
We hatched them from cold storage
eggs.
This is a lobster I've mounted to show
All the wit that in it is revealed.
A legal dispute it is, don't you know?
All its claws have been fully repealed.

"This tapir I caught in the jungles one night.
But I tried hard to choke it to death.
For the tapir attempted to blow out its light."
But I felled it—I shut off its breath.
This sawfish I caught in a terrible gale.
And it cut me the fin of its gale.
But the file that you see on the end of its tail.
It would use when 'twould sharpen each tooth.

"And here," he remarked as we paused
at a case.
"Are two stories I've written to sell.
But in none of them all will you find any traces
Of the wonderful things that I tell.
I am waiting until I can add to this branch
What I know will be splendid on view.
I am yearning to find a gray wolf at his lunch
On the heart of a bull caribou."

E. C. RICHARDSON.HARRY ROESEL FOR PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL

Mr. Harry Roesel is the Democratic candidate for President of the City Council, or vice-mayor, which position he has so efficiently filled ever since the municipal code went into effect. Mr. Roesel has made a most excellent official, is a hard worker and considers public office a public trust. The position of President of the City Council is a most important one, requiring excellent judgment and a good knowledge of parliamentary law. These attributes are possessed by Mr. Roesel in a high degree. His fellow citizens have ever found him a man of sterling honesty and integrity. He is fully competent and qualified to fill the important office of President of the Council to the satisfaction of all the people. He is a good friend of labor, as has been demonstrated on more than one occasion. He has ever been found a man of sterling honesty and integrity, and is one of the most popular men in Newark, counting his friends by the hundreds. And these friends are not confined to the Democratic party, but embrace men of all parties and of all creeds, and his majority will only be gauged by his ability and popularity.

MR. AITHERTON'S PLATFORM.

Following its usual campaign tactics, the American-Tribune belittles the statement given by Herbert Atherton over his own signature, and with effrontery asserts that he doesn't mean what he says.

Mr. Atherton has said that he is opposed to gambling and slot machines, and will use his best efforts, if elected, to suppress gambling in every form.

Mr. Atherton has declared that he will enforce the midnight closing ordinance.

Mr. Atherton has declared himself in favor of the maintenance of order on Sunday, and every other day of the week, has promised a "square deal" and a common sense business administration.

Mr. Atherton has said that he favors a moderately liberal policy and is not opposed to Sunday baseball, providing it is conducted in an orderly manner. Neither is he opposed to news stands, fruit stands, drug stores etc., being open on Sunday, for the reason that their business supplies people's necessities.

The Democratic candidate has made a full and frank statement of his position upon public questions at issue in this campaign, and he gives his friends assurance and his enemies notice that if elected he will carry out the policy he has outlined in detail in a previous issue of this paper.

MR. RANDOLPH ON FENCE.

Up to the hour of going to press, Edwin S. Randolph, Republican candidate for mayor of Newark remains on the fence.

Mr. Randolph has announced over his own signature in bold type through the American-Tribune, that he favors the suppression of gambling, the enforcement of the midnight closing ordinance and the closing of saloons on Sunday, but there his platform stops. Evidently Mr. Randolph hasn't the courage of his convictions on the Sunday baseball proposition. He is either in favor of or opposed to Sunday baseball, but hesitates to announce his position.

Instead of telling the voters who have a right to know how he regards this baseball matter, Mr. Randolph attempts to dismiss the subject by insinuating that the ball park being outside the city is therefore beyond his jurisdiction. Mr. Randolph may have thought so, but the Advocate the other day quoted the law showing that the mayor has jurisdiction in such matters and there can be no further excuse for dodging the issue. Mr. Randolph now knows, even if he didn't a few days ago, that he, as mayor, could prohibit Sunday baseball, but he still remains mum as an oyster. By pursuing this course, does Mr. Randolph hope to fool the voters, or is he simply pondering? The Republican candidate was in great haste to declare his position on several planks, but why this reticence on Sunday ball.

DANGEROUS CROSSING.

The death of James Tanner at the Oakwood avenue, East Newark, crossing, last Monday, adds one more to the long list of fatalities at this and other railway crossings in Newark. The Oakwood crossing is especially dangerous, because cars of cars are so frequently left there in position so as to obstruct the view of the track.

Mr. Tanner stepped around a number of cars on the main track and was hit by a train that was upon him before he knew it was approaching.

Owing to the fact that many of the Hensley factory people are obliged to cross this stretch of track in going to and from their work, and as the street is a busy thoroughfare, it would be appreciated if a watchman were stationed there to guide and warn the people.

Mr. Demonde, of Demonde and Dinsmore, at the Orplum this week.

AMUSEMENTS

PAUL GILMORE WILL REVEALED

Paul Gilmore, a comedy going comedian actor, played at the Auditorium last night in his first season production "The Wheel of Love." The house was comfortably filled and the comedian's efforts of laughter and applause showed that his efforts in the line of the light hearted "Jack Hartley," also known as "Horace Smead," were much appreciated. With the exception of Willard Lewis as "Horace Smead," commonly known as "Giz," his support was bad. The two carried the show though, and furnished a very pleasant evening's entertainment. Just why the play is given its title is not known, but possibly the playwright knows, and that is about all that is necessary.

Gilmore becomes the husband in name only, of Eleanor Grayson, to save her from marrying an old man picked out for her by her uncle. That is the plot in a nutshell and the action of the entire play revolves on that alone. The play is strictly comedy, and went well with the audience. At the end of the second act Mr. Gilmore was forced by repeated curtain calls, to make a speech. He was clever and his reception by the audience pleased him so that his few words were well chosen.

HEBREW IMPERSONATOR.

Few actors in recent years have gained the eminence that comes to James, Kyle MacCurdy, justly considered by public and press as one of the most versatile Hebrew impersonators on the stage today.

Mr. MacCurdy is now in his fourth season under management of the Rowland & Clifford Amusement Co., in "The Old Clothes Man," a typical story of the East Side Jew.

The production is equipped with all new scenery and effects, and comes directly from a long Chicago run.

Danny Dougherty, ex-champion bantam weight, and Kid Sharkey will appear in a spirited boxing contest during the third act. These young men give a masterly exhibition of physical culture, and both are experts in the manly art of self defense. Ladies will enjoy the exciting contest between these two young men. It is a correct likeness of a prize fight, with all the objectionable features eliminated.

There is more real pathos, amusement and comedy in "The Old Clothes Man" than any Jewish character play ever written. The production will be seen here Saturday afternoon and night, October 19, at the Auditorium.

LAWRENCE EVART FRIDAY.

Mr. Lawrence Evart, to be seen in this city at the Auditorium Friday evening, is starting for the second season in "We Are Kings," and is one of the few actors who possess a delightfully flexible and resonant voice and uses it to the best advantage at all times, which when coupled with his easy presence and magnetism, causes him to be favored by the audience almost upon his first appearance.

ance. The dual role of Hector, King of Kahnoor, and Gustavus Verner, a wanderer and adventurer, affords Evart every opportunity to display his capability, and the easiness with which he effects the transformation from one to the other of directly contrasting natures simply proves that he is gifted with great versatility and ability. Mr. A. W. Cross surrounds his star with a capable company and production. Success has greeted them from the very first performance.

HUMPTY DUMPTY.

This makes the tenth year out on the road for "Humpty Dumpty," and millions of people have laughed at this matchless side splitter. This splendid company of fun makers is well recommended wherever they appear. Standing room only is the warning in all towns, packed to the doors, beyond doubt the funniest comedy on the road, three long acts of constant laughter. Bring the whole family and enjoy an evening of pure fun. Get your seats early, else you'll have to go way back and stand up. At the Auditorium next Monday evening.

DARLING OF THE GODS.

Newark may count itself fortunate in the announcement which comes authoritatively today that David Belasco will present "The Darling of the Gods" at the Auditorium theater. The opening date of sale, prices and other particulars concerning this, the most important theatrical event of the season will be published in a few days.

ORPHUM THEATER.

Judging from the applause at the Orplum this week the show is one of the most pleasing ever seen here. Every act is forced to respond to numerous cries. The bill consists of Long and his trained troupe of fox hunters, Demonde and Dinsmore, one of the hits of the show, the Quinn Trio, singers and dancers, Giles Harrington, that funny fellow, Miss Ada Fairchild, illustrated songs, "Scuggle Up Crows" and the latest moving pictures. Seats and seats early. Look on a program. School children get a halloo at Sunday's matinee, 1.00.

Newark, O., Oct. 16.—F. A. Knapp has resigned his position as postmaster at Bellevue, with a salary of $1,500. Knapp desires to devote his whole time as president of the Bellevue Home Telephone Company. Congress men have probably recommended F. O. Bates as Knapp's successor.

let go. The other employees were idle, awaiting the completion of some repairs Hamilton was making. But for that, the roll of death of the Fontanet powder mills would be larger. When the first explosion occurred at 9:12 o'clock yesterday morning there were about 75 men in the mills, the survivors say. The fact is that no one except Supt. Monahan knew exactly how many men were in the mills, for they were scattered in squads in different departments.

FUTILE EFFORTS TO ESCAPE.

The carnage had its origin in the glazing mill. The explosion wrecked that section of the mill and set it on fire. How many men were in the glazing mill at the time no one seems to know. The first explosion caused a general scurrying for cover by every man and boy not affected by it. Many men were caught while fleeing for the second and third explosion, caused by the concussion created by the first came in quick succession. The fourth explosion occurred about 10:45 o'clock and was caused by heat from the burning embers of the building wrecked by the first blow.

FEARFUL TORTURE WAS SUFFERED

By Those Who Escaped With Their Lives From the Raging Inferno

The men who managed to escape with their lives suffered fearful torture for not one escaped whole. Each has some mark. When the first explosion occurred the star shaped ravine, in which the mills nestled, instantly became a seething, roaring cauldron of flame. The air bore death. Like the roar of a thousand thunder clouds the crash came. It was quick, relentless. Men were hurled into the air only to be cast back into atoms into the furnace and into the shattered fields that lay around it.

The little town of Fontanet was not harkening for such a day, although those who knew conditions at the mills knew it soon must come. None ever thought, however, that it would be as terrible as this. The first explosion drove many of the residents of Fontanet against the walls

WOMAN FAINTED IN COURT ROOM

Millionaire's Wife Who Confessed to Burglary Surrendered by Her Bondsmen to Police.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Forsaken by family and friends and driven desperate by thoughts of imprisonment in the Harrison street annex, Mrs. Evaline Romadka collapsed in Judge Sadler's court Tuesday.

Accompanied only by an attorney and a private detective, the wife of millionaire C. J. Romadka, of Milwaukee, who has confessed that she is a burglar, was brought into court.

As she learned that her bond had been withdrawn by her bondsmen, and that she was surrendered into the custody of the police for the third time, Mrs. Romadka gave a cry and would have fallen unconscious to the floor had she not been supported.

As she was led from the courtroom she stumbled twice and fell. The courtroom was crowded with witnesses. Gaily bedecked women gathered inside the railing.

When Albert Jones, her alleged accomplice, was brought in, he grinned at Mrs. Romadka and sat down only two seats away.

C. J. Romadka, the husband, and Clement Romadka, the brother-in-law, failed to appear. It was said that Mrs. Romadka's father and sister were in the city, but they failed to appear.

Between Attorney John F. Donovan and Assistant State's Attorney Roe, the case was postponed for one week. F. H. Lucas, a negro attorney representing Jones, had the negro's case set for the same day.

British Efforts Fail.

Tangier, Oct. 16.—It is stated on good authority that the French offer to take up the question of the release of Capt. Sir Harry MacLean was due to the fact that British negotiations with Raisuli had lamentably failed. Allen MacLean, brother of Sir Harry, has just returned here from Rabat, where he submitted to Sultan Abd el Aziz a proposition that Great Britain pay Raisuli $150,000 ransom for Sir Harry on condition that the sultan guarantee to reimburse the sum. The sultan, however, appears to have referred the matter to the French.

The buildings trades of San Francisco, Cal., are discussing up a proposition to settle upon a scale of wages for three years.

Kingo Leopold has offered a prize of $30,000 for a remedy for the sleeping sickness, which is wiping out his subjects in Africa.

August Belmont, head of the traction interests in New York, says he has been a straphanger all his life.

Robbed by Two Pretty Young Girls in Gay Paris.

Paris, Oct. 16.—A wealthy American, during the lunch hour of the dressmaking establishments on the Rue de la Paix, got into conversation with two pretty young women, whom he thought were dressmakers. He promised to send them some picture postal cards from Milan and drew out his pocketbook and placed a card on it for them to write their addresses. Suddenly the bell ringing the girls to work was heard and the young women rushed indoors, taking the pocketbook with them. It contained $1,200. The police were notified, but found that the girls were not known in any dressmaker's establishment in the neighborhood.

IN NEW ENGLAND

Heavy Earthquake Shock Felt at Several Points.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 16.—The heavy rambling of an earthquake was felt in the city and all suburban towns at 7:10 o'clock Tuesday. The shock lasted two or three seconds and was followed by what appeared to be a sharp explosion. In a few instances chinaware was thrown to the floor and in many dwellings the dishes rattled. The earthquake alarmed persons in various sections of the city and many of them ran from their houses. No great damage was done at any point. The shock was also felt at several points in southern New Hampshire.

Trust Farmer a Suspect.

Amite, La., Oct. 16.—Vincenzo Zinardo, an Italian truck farmer living near here, has been arrested, charged with being a party to the kidnapping and murder of eight-year-old Walter Lamana at New Orleans last June. While it is not alleged that Zinardo participated actively in the kidnapping or murder, it is claimed that correspondence has been found between him and Italians who are implicated in the crime.

Transport Ashore.

Odessa, Oct. 16.—The Black sea transport Pruth ran ashore on Berean island. There were no casualties and it is believed that the steamer can be refloated. The Pruth was conveying several Russian deputations to Otechakov to witness the unveiling of the monument of General Suvaroff.

LOCKE'S CATCHING WAS THE FEATURE

Of Annual Game Between the Cincinnati Reds and Shawnee Team Tuesday Afternoon.

Shawnee, Oct. 16.—F. C. Bancroft and his hustling bunch of Cincinnati Reds were greeted here Tuesday by a large and enthusiastic audience under most favorable weather conditions.

Before the game Manager Bancroft stepped out in front of the grand stand and introduced big Mike Mitchell as the champion fungo hitter of the world. Then Mitchell gave an exhibition by putting a new ball over center field fence, and the first time up in the game he repeated the trick for a home run. It was half holiday in Shawnee. All places of business and factories and mines closed down in honor of the Reds' annual visit.

The Reds won by the narrow margin of one run. The feature of the game was the catching of Frank Locke and the batting of Mitchell and Lobert.

Paris, Oct. 16.—It is declared that Philip Coon, the young New Yorker, who disappeared from a well known hotel here Oct. 12, has eloped. No reason can be found for such a course as Mrs. Coon, the young man's mother, had no objection to the girl he intended marrying.

NO POWER

GIVEN COMMON PLEAS COURTS TO ORDER INDICTMENTS TO BE NOLLED.

Important Decision Handed Down by the Supreme Court at Columbus Tuesday.

Columbus, Oct. 16.—Common Pleas courts have no power to order an indictment to be nolle prosequi according to a decision of the Supreme court Tuesday in the case of Salmon P. Jones, indicted against Froome Morris, on a charge of the Circuit court of Hamilton county. It must be well understood, however, too, for the court does not have the power.

The case was brought on by an assistant prosecuting attorney, refused to nolle an indictment against William Fitz, who was found guilty of a robbery charge, but who was granted a new trial. Because of this, which was a formal order from the bench, the trial judge declared Morris guilty of contempt of court and fined him $100. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff Bunn farm, drilled by the Ohio Fuel, and estimated at 9,000,000 cubic feet, and No. 3 on the M. Ewart farm drilled by the Forging company. The latter is said to have a 7,000,000 cubic foot capacity.

FRANCHISES

GRANTED TO LOW FARE CAR
LINE ARE HELD TO BE ILLEGAL.

Freight Handlers to Strike at Toledo
—To Remove Seminary—Live
News of Ohio.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 16.—A decision was rendered by Common Pleas Judge Lawrence holding as illegal all franchises granted by the council for the so-called three-cent fare line on the East Side, except a small section constructed on East Fourteenth street, which covers about two blocks. The court held that the franchises for three-cent lines on the West Side were valid, because they were granted prior to the date upon which Mayor Johnson was alleged to have become financially interested in these city lines. The decision holds that Mayor Johnson is exonerated of financial interest in the low fare companies, his obligations having been cancelled before the passage of the curative ordinance passed by the city council Aug. 2, last. The substance of the decision is that all of the grants applying to the territory west of the center of the public square are valid and legal grants, but that excepting as to East Fourteenth street, which is reserved for future consideration, all of the grants applying to the territory east of the public square are invalid.

Freight Handlers May Strike.
Toledo, O., Oct. 16.—All the railroads entering Toledo were served with notice from freight handlers that 10 days will be given the roads to increase the wages of the handlers, the demand ranging from $5 to $10 a month increase. There are nearly 1,000 freight handlers in the city and a strike is imminent if the roads refuse the increase. The time limit is so short that in some instances the demand cannot be met in the time specified. The action of the freight handlers is believed to be in the interests of the striking railway clerks.

To Remove Heidelberg Seminary.
Bellevue, O., Oct. 16.—The Reformed synod voted to remove Heidelberg seminary from Tiffin to Dayton, as soon as arrangements can be completed. This was accomplished only after a great struggle. Cleveland, Indianapolis and Toledo especially desiring the institution on account of the recent union with Ursinus college of Philadelphia. Dayton gives $15,000 cash and E. J. Barney offers a five-acre site on Hoffman hill, having buildings worth $25,000, for $18,000. The church at large will give $100,000 towards improvements.

Mysteriously Missing.
Hamilton, O., Oct. 16.—Miss Mamie Cantwell, daughter of a respected family of Oxford, has been strangely missing since last Saturday morning, when she started to take the train for this city to attend the funeral of Judge John F. Neelan, administrator of her estate. It was thought Miss Cantwell might be staying with relatives, but on inquiry it was discovered that she had not been seen by any of them.

Gun Exploded.
Bryan, O., Oct. 16.—Earl M. Zimmerman, 16, met almost instant death by the accidental discharge of a shotgun. The boy, with two companions, were leaving his home to hunt squirrels. When they were about 30 feet from the house the gun exploded, the entire charge entering the boy's breast near the heart.

Tired of Life.
Chillicothe, O., Oct. 16.—Lucas Keller, 62, a civil war veteran at home from the Dayton Soldiers' home on a furlough, cut his throat in the hay mow at his home and bled to death before found by his son. He was to have returned to Dayton.

Work of Yeggmen.
Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—Safecrackers blew the strong box in the office of Crosby & Beckley, lumber merchants, securing $212.26 in cash and a note for $497.91. The building was badly wrecked.

Choked to Death.
Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Aaron Cordy of this city attended the funeral of an aunt and returning home found that her husband had choked to death on a piece of meat in her absence.

Congressman Harding Weds.
Middletown, O., Oct. 16.—Congressman John E. Harding was married to Miss Edna M. Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wilson of this city, at the first Baptist church here.

AT PALACE RINK.
A rare treat was in store for those present at the Palace rink last night. The new music which was played for the first time this session is very catchy and some of the airs have already become popular with the lovers of skating. Every piece was highly appreciated by the encores of the large crowd present. The manager, Mr. C. E. Snyder, is to be congratulated for making the Palace one of Newark's foremost amusement houses. He has already booked some high class attractions and promises the skating public nothing but the very best that can be had. He has combined dancing with skating and every Thursday night devotes part of the evening to dancing. The regular sessions of the Palace are Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening.

TAKEN BY PRESIDENT WITH THE THERMOMETER BELOW 40 DEGREES.

Hunt to Close With the Last Round
Next Saturday—Will Speak
No More.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 16.—Arrivals from the Bear Lake encampment tell marvelous stories of the president's hardihood and capacity for roughing it. When he carried his blankets with only cold bread and meat he had taken in his saddle pockets they marveled that a president could be so easily satisfied, but when he jumped into Bear Lake for a swim upon rising at daybreak their astonishment was almost without bounds. The thermometer registered at the time less than 40 degrees and most of the others present were sedulously hugging the camp fire. A fresh supply of bear dogs has been dispatched to the camp.

Return of Roosevelt.
Stamboul, La., Oct. 16.—It is now President Roosevelt's purpose to close his hunt with the last round on Saturday and to come into Stamboul early Sunday. He will spend Sunday afternoon and Sunday night at the residence of Leo Shields, plantation manager for J. M. Parker, one of the president's party, and on Monday morning leave for Vicksburg, where he is to speak Monday afternoon. Pressing invitations to speak at many other places have been received, but all have been declined and there will be no more addresses on the southern trip except those to be made at Vicksburg and Nashville, with the possible exception of a few words at Tallulah.

MOTORMEN MUST STOP THEIR CARS

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—A decision given yesterday in the Franklin county case of the Columbus, New Albany and Johnstown Traction company against Charles Cashner, means that when the motorman of a traction car sees a runaway horse, or other possible cause of accident, he must immediately stop his car, no matter where it is. Cashner was injured near the East market when his horse was frightened by a street car. He gets $975 damages.

GOVERNMENT

May Lose Entire Amount Loaned to Jamestown Exposition—May Attach Receipts.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Treasury officials practically admitted that the $1,000,000 loan by congress to the Jamestown exposition and the additional money expended from federal funds for construction work on the fair would be a dead loss to the government. Acting Secretary Edwards has had under consideration for some time the scheme of assuming charge of the exposition and retaining the gate receipts as a partial return of the government's loan. By the act of congress granting a loan to the exposition company the only redress the treasury officials have is to levy on the receipts.

BISHOP

USED AN OFFICE DESK AS A PULPIT IN WALL STREET

And Preached to Bankers, Brokers, Clerks and Others on "The Pull of Faith."

New York, Oct. 16.—Standing on a temporary platform where an office desk served as a pulpit, the bishop of London preached the gospel in the open air of Wall street. It was the second appearance in the financial district of Rev. Arthur Foley Winington Ingram, bankers, brokers, policemen, clerks and messengers made up the audience. The bishop talked on the "pull of faith." It was the pull of conscience, he said, that enabled men to distinguish right from wrong. The pull on the conscience, the heart and soul was a pull toward a life of prayer.

If hell is paved with good intentions, they should be hot stuff.
